

What is a Rainbow Warrior?
by Balance Toe
www.balancetoe.com

In our ancient Piwweltha American Indian-Pueblo belief a Rainbow Warrior is a member of the original Rainbow clans located within the world tribes. Piwweltha means feather bunch flying to the cosmos beyond the cosmos. In our tradition everyone is an Angel from beyond the galaxy who has come to this planet to experience life in a 3D form. In our belief each of you returns back to earth through new reincarnated stages. We also believe everyone will experience different ethnicities as we evolve within our Path of Self.

What is the Rainbow made of besides bent rays or reflected and refracted water droplets? One could suggest LIGHT SOURCE and/or multi faceted dimensional energies. A Rainbow Warrior is an individual who has become part of the Light Source energies to assist in the awakening process of humanity with direction from the Feminine Cosmic Source of Individual Consciousness represented by white light. Collective Consciousness is represented by the blue light and Source Consciousness is represented by the purple light.

When a true Rainbow Warrior is enlightened to understand and utilize these ancient ways of healing within oneself, the ability to create through action and belief is unlimited. Therefore we as an individuals utilize two-forms of energy. On our right side of the body is flesh and soul guided by male energy of low vibration. On our left side of the body is Spirit and Light guided by feminine energy of high vibration. These two energies are on opposite spectrums of truth. Male energy is control, greed, anger, fear, ego and entitlement. Female energy is forgiveness, unconditional love, truth, action and knowing.

Which energy do you feed?

Most of today's society around the planet utilizes male energy which is part of the old paradigm of Cosmic shadow control or forces beyond our planet controlling the mass by alien vibrational brainwashing technology. Rainbow Warriors are immune to this device due to higher vibrational Spiritual DNA memory which can only be utilized within feminine energy.

Rainbow Warriors have a positive connection to all things surrounding them. The importance to the evolution of humankind is the evolution of the environment in which we govern. We are connected to the earth, animals, creepy crawlers, winged ones, four legged, the finned ones, crystals, trees and more on a 3D level. Also we have the ability to connect to the multi-dimensional forms such as fairies, nemes, dragons, little people and spirits. As humanity awakens the true Rainbow Warriors will come together as one source of change. We look at life different, we seldom fit in with our family and sometimes feel like we were adopted.

The truth is there are two-forms of Rainbow Warriors

One is a true Walk-In and the other is a Walk-In apprentice. A true Walk-In is an individual who has suffered greatly for the betterment of humanity through the continuation and acceptance of reincarnated stages by choice governed by Source and the Collective. This suffering is a high energy source of self sacrifice. Sometimes it includes hitting rock bottom, so your spiritual vibration may teach others as you progress upward to assist those people ignored due to fear. Considered an Elder and Shaman in my community, I have traveled this path from the moment of breath. Walk-Ins were placed in a certain time frame for humanity to be able to accept the truth of where we are from and where we are meant to return to.

Path of Self by Balance Toe